Emancipation in Border States.

An assertion, if made four years ago, that all the Border States would be planning projects of emancipation in 1865, would have been received with no little incredulity; but there is not a more striking indication of the character of the age, and the change of public sentiment now going on through the land, than can be found in the political history of these border States during the years of war since the rebellion commenced. Missouri and Kentucky have been the theater of terrible contests. They have been alternately overrun by the armies of the rebellion and the guerrilla bands that have infested them in the intervals of absence, and all the horrors of border warfare have been enacted. The miseries of civil strife have all been exaggerated upon their soil, and the people have learned much and suffered much more than we can possibly depict.

From the extreme of pro-slavery sentiment Missouri has become radical. One convention met and provided a gradual plan of emancipation for the State, but the times have, in a few months, brought such changes that another convention has just met and has by an almost unanimous vote decreed immediate emancipation, and we have to class Missouri as free to-day. Maryland has done the same thing. "My Maryland" is past the imagination of even Jeff. Davis, and we now hear that Kentucky is discussing the subject, not of emancipation in the abstract, for that seems to be a foregone conclusion; the remaining question is simply what plan shall be adopted to accomplish this result which is acknowledged to be inevitable. Tennessee will follow the example set her by other border States, and Arkansas will be still another to carry out the principle that marks the progress of the age.

It is customary for many who oppose the Administration to declare that these changes of sentiment are due to the bayonet. There are many who are so willing to believe this, that they will catch at any hook, baited with such a welcome morsel, and swallow greedily any assertion so much in consonance with their feelings. Even in case they cannot substantiate the assertion that cold steel rules on the border, they will fall back upon another reserve and claim that the votes of armies have done it. To quote only one of many authorities that tend to prove the contrary, we give a letter written by Hon. Reverdy Johnson, on the election that decided slavery should cease in Maryland. Reverdy Johnson is a Democrat, was in favor of McClellan, and did all he could in opposition to President Lincoln, which entitles his words to all the effect we claim for them:

WASHINGTON, April 27, '64.—Delighted to hear of yesterday's election. A new era is dawning on our State. Slavery ended and she will be, as Washington said she would be in that event, "the garden spot" of the United States.

He said so in a letter to St. John Lincoln in '96. If it is done also in the whole country, (as I think it will be,) great as our prosperity has been in the past, and high as has been our name with the nations of the world, both will be immeasurably, almost, enhanced. God grant that it may be so. Yours, truly,

REVERDY JOHNSON.

C. C. Fulton, Esq., Baltimore.

We are not willing to leave any charge unrefuted that sets forth that the Government has in any manner unlawfully made use of the army, by vote or the bayonet, to further its ends. Such charges are easily made, and the continual repetition of a falsehood is a most easy thing where the will exists to repeat it, but the public should require more than the simple assertion for proof. In times of revolution, when men think fast, facts are presented as never before, under a light of experience and in circumstances that startle the mind from the old beaten track of thought and invest it with attributes and capacities that were never required of it before. Those who shut their eyes to progress, refuse to see and to hear aught that conflicts with preconceived views and ideas, may as well be out of the world as to ignore its progress.

EDWARD EVERETT.—On Sunday morning, at his residence in Summer street, Boston, died Edward Everett, a statesman, orator and writer, whose long life of over seventy years, in great part spent in public service, entitles him to be considered one of the most distinguished men of our time. Originally educated for the ministry, he was, when scarce twenty years of age, pastor of the Brattle Street Church in Boston, where he laid the foundation of his future reputation as an orator. For several years after, he filled the chair of Professor of Greek literature at Harvard, having qualified himself for the duties of that position by extensive travel and study upon the continent of Europe. His public life commenced in 1824, when he was elected to Congress, in which representative capacity he served his native State ten years. He was appreciated not as a fiery debater, but as one of the most assiduous and reliable working members of that body.

Declining a re-election in 1834, he was nominated and elected as Governor of Massachusetts, and was annually re-elected until 1839, when he was defeated by the Democratic candidate. Afterwards he was successively Minister to Great Britain, President of Harvard University, Secretary of State, and Senator in Congress from Massachusetts. His lecture on Washington delivered so often to aid the Washington Monument Fund, has made him well known throughout the land and his efforts in behalf of that object are said to have netted the sum of nearly one hundred thousand dollars, and materially aided the progress of the work. In 1860 he was a candidate for the Vice Presidency, and since the war commenced has been a distinguished and earnest supporter of the Government.

An announcement from the State Department of his death, is accompanied by instructions that the several Departments show appropriate honor to his memory. Like a ripe sheaf he has been gathered home, and there are not many left to be called his equals.

A NOVEL WAY.—A friend from Jacksonville tells us that a drove of two hundred and forty-three fat hogs were lately driven by the new road over the mountains from Jackson county to the mines. They were a month upon the road, and were kept in good order by being fed on beef. A drove of cattle were in company, and these were killed and fed to the swine, which were thereby kept in good order all the way.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO JANUARY 16.

Tennessee for the Union.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 15.—The Commercial's Nashville dispatch says the Convention unanimously passed resolutions declaring slavery forever abolished and prohibited throughout the State; also, a resolution annulling their declaration of State independence and the military league made with the Confederate States, and all laws and ordinances made in pursuance of them.

All officers appointed by the acting Governor since his accession to office are confirmed. The proceedings of the Convention are to be submitted to the people for ratification on the 22d of February, and on March 4th the election is to be held for Governor and members of the Legislature. Nearly three hundred delegates participated in the final vote, and the greatest harmony and good feeling prevailed throughout. Parson Brownlow is the unanimous choice of the Convention for next Governor.

NASHVILLE, Jan. 14.—The Union Convention in its session to-day nominated W. G. Brownlow for Governor by acclamation.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 16.—A Nashville telegram says: The Convention passed by a nearly unanimous vote a resolution that no person shall be considered qualified to vote until he has taken a stringent oath declaring himself unequivocally in favor of the Union and all the laws and proclamations issued by the President since the war began.

What Richmond Papers Say.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The Richmond Whig of the 12th says: The War Department is without a single dispatch from any quarter. The telegraph owing to heavy rains is not working. The James river is considerably out of its banks, and unless it turns suddenly cold, a freshet equal to that of last spring may be expected.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The Richmond papers continue quarrelling over their leaders. They think Jeff Davis' conduct reprehensible and also make onslaughts on Kirby Smith, who is now discovered to possess more attractions for great military genius than anyone else.

Hood's failures in Tennessee are attributed to the disgust the people of that State have for the Confederacy. None but Lee and Johnson appear to be satisfactory.

The Richmond Dispatch of the 12th says: It was reported yesterday that Blair, the Yankee Peace Commissioner had arrived during the day, and had an interview with the President and Secretary of War. He has not yet, we are assured, come to the city, and it is evident that the Secretary has sent him a pass to visit Richmond.

In the rebel House of Representatives on Wednesday, Miles, of South Carolina, introduced the following resolutions, which were ordered printed:

Resolved, That under the Constitution Congress alone has the right to declare war, and the President by and with the consent of the Senate to treat for peace.

Resolved, That all attempts to make peace with the United States by action or intervention of separate States composing the Confederacy, are unauthorized by the Constitution and in contradiction of the law of the land and therefore void.

The Richmond papers publish official reports of the defense of Fort Fisher and the surrounding works. The strength of the garrison and the damage done by the bombardment are not related. The Sentinel states that discord between Butler and Porter was the cause of our failure. One of the rebel prisoners says eight guns were disabled in Fort Fisher, and that the severe shelling drove the men to the casemates, where they fully expected an assault and could have made little resistance.

The Richmond Dispatch says the freshet in the James river commenced falling about four o'clock yesterday afternoon. In less than two hours it had subsided upwards of fifteen inches. Further than a small break in the canal and the filling up of first and second stories of several buildings in the lower part of the city, we have not heard of any serious damage accruing therefrom. It is reported that the enemy, during the storm of last Tuesday, advanced their picket lines on the extreme right south of Petersburg.

Francis P. Blair, Sr., the Yankee Peace Commissioner, arrived in this city on the night of the 11th. He came into our lines at a point in front of Fort Harrison held by the city battalion. He was delayed several hours in our lines waiting for permission to come to the city, which was not procured till a late hour of the night. Since his arrival he has been kept, or has kept himself from the public eye. His movements and whereabouts are shrouded in mystery. He is believed to be lodged at the Spotswood House. He has been met accidentally by several of his old acquaintances, and their meetings were characterized by the utmost cordiality on both sides. He is said to have had interviews with the chief executive officers.

The Richmond Whig says Grant is being reinforced on both the north and south sides of the James river by negro troops.

How Rebels were captured at Ft. Fisher.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The Wilmington Journal enquires how the junior reserves of North Carolina were captured before Fort Fisher. It appears that a Yankee captain and five men met 150 of the reserves under Major Reese, and commanded the the Major's command to surrender, telling him that there was no use of resisting, as he was surrounded. One Lieutenant refused to surrender, and walked off with 12 men, but the Major, unaware of the transparent sell, as the Journal calls it, surrendered with his 150 men to six Yankees. These our men marched into our lines, carrying their own weapons, loaded and capped.

Savannah and Charleston.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The Norfolk Old Dominion says: The expedition up the Savannah river destroyed ten miles of the South Carolina and Columbus Railroad. A company of South Carolina militia was captured by Foster near Hardeeville. They had been two weeks in the service and did not like war. The expeditions up the Savannah river are destroying the Charleston and Columbus Railroad, which is a part of Grant's project for the complete isolation of Richmond. It is reported at Fortress Monroe that the proper authorities have gone to Georgia for the purpose of settling the terms upon which Georgia can return to the Union, after which they may proceed thence to South Carolina.

More about H. S. Foote.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—It appears from a conversation with Mrs. Foote that she had a passport to leave the Confederacy, and started from Richmond three weeks ago. Foote accompanied her, but without such authority, but for the purpose of seeing her safely over the Potomac. In the meantime, an order was issued to the rebel Provost Marshal at Fredericksburg, by Seddon, the Secretary of War, for his arrest. He was accordingly tracked to Dumfries, there captured and taken back to Richmond.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—The Times' special says: From an interview with Mrs. Foote it appears that the rebel Congress is slavishly subservient to Davis; that when bills meet with opposition, the majority go into secret session and rush them through: that the character of war has been changed by Davis, and is now carried on for his own purposes; that unless it can be terminated to satisfy him and his school of politicians, he will carry it on in a more bloody and barbarous manner than ever, and that there is not the slightest prospect of Blair meeting with success. She also speaks that the great mass of the people want to come back to the Union under the Constitution, but are restrained by the military power and as the freedom of the press in this particular is essentially gone, there is no way for them to express their views. It was for the purpose of [illegible] these people, that Foote endeavored to reach Washington. Mrs. Foote says those who serve with the Richmond Junta live as well as ever, and are supplied with all the luxuries at comparatively small cost, the Government paying the expenses.

Rebel attack on Beverly.

NEW YORK, January 15.—A Clarksburg, West Virginia, dispatch, states that the rebels, after an attack on Beverly, retreated toward Lewisburg. Citizens report that they captured over 400 prisoners, including two Lieut. Colonels. The latter escaped. Some 200 stragglers have already come in. A courtmartial will investigate the affair.

The Herald has further particulars of the rebel attack on Beverly, West Virginia, on Wednesday morning, the 11th. The attacking force was commanded by General Wickham, of Rosser's division.

The Union troops at the post consisted of the 34th Ohio, and 8th Ohio cavalry under Col. Forrey. They were completely taken by surprise and outnumbered. The rebels rushed in suddenly about daybreak. Cols. Forrey and Gratt and about 200 men were taken prisoners.

Two colonels and 200 men soon after succeeded in making their escape, and regaining the Union lines. The rebels made a short stay and then retreated toward Lewisburg.

From South America.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—By the Ocean Queen we have Panama dates to the 5th. The town of [illegible] Ecuador was nearly destroyed on the 9th of December. [illegible] We have no news [illegible] in the interior. A letter from Valparaiso, Dec. 19th, says the question between Spain and Peru appears more serious than ever. The commanders of the [illegible] fleet have informed their President that they cannot cope with the Spaniards. A Callao letter of Dec. 2d states that the Spanish fleet has been reinforced by three ships.

The Panama Star and Herald says it learns that all restrictions are being removed by the Japanese treaty. Large quantities of silk, accumulated at Yeddo, have arrived at Kanagawa. European merchants were congratulating themselves on the improved prospects of business.

A Panama letter states that the rebel pirates Bradshaw and Gary are on the coast of San Salvador awaiting an opportunity to depredate on American shipping.

The New Atlantic Cable.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Letters from George Seward, Secretary and General Superintendent of the Atlantic Telegraph Company, to Cyrus W. Field, after alluding to [illegible], state the amount completed to exceed [illegible] at 750 miles. The cable is now being manufactured at the rate of 80 miles per week. It will be finished by the first week in June. Two tanks are on board the Great Eastern for the storage of the cable, and a third is rapidly progressing. There is no reason to doubt that the cable will all be on board the ship ready for sea, with every appliance and in the best order, during the month of June. Seward has no doubt the cable will be successfully laid and worked.

Death of Edward Everett.

BOSTON, Jan. 15.—Edward Everett died this morning at his residence on Summer street in this city, of apoplexy, aged 70 years and 9 months.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The following announcement has been furnished for general publication:

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, Washington, Jan. 15.—The President directs the undersigned to perform the painful duty of announcing to the people of the United States, that Edward Everett, distinguished not more by learning and eloquence than by unsurpassed and disinterested labors of patriotism at a period of political disorder, departed this life at four o'clock this morning. The several executive departments of the Government will cause appropriate honors to be rendered to the memory of the deceased at home and abroad, wherever the national name and authority are known.

W. H. SEWARD.

From Mobile.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The Richmond Enquirer of January 12th contains the following from the Mobile Advertiser:

The Yankees about 4,000 strong are at Franklin Mills on Dog river, without transportation. Their supplies are received by the way of Dog river. Owing to formation of the country their position is unassailable. Forces are in proper position to stop any move they may make.

In a skirmish the other day, three Yankees were killed and five captured. On Friday says the Charleston Mercury, the Yankees in unknown force, are said to have crossed New river, on the road to Grahamsville. Their main body, however, is still in the neighborhood of Hardeeville. As yet their object is not developed. Wheeler is closely watching their movements.

What Admiral Porter Says.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The Herald's special says: Admiral Porter has sent a communication to the Navy Department, in which he responds to some of Butler's statements in regard to the naval part of the expedition delaying the attack on Fort Fisher, and thus causing its failure. He says the only work assigned the Navy was to shell the rebel works; that it did it effectually on the 24th and 25th of December; that Butler then decided that an assault by the military was not feasible, it would not have been less so for the Navy. He was of the opinion that the Fort could easily have been taken by troops if an effort had been made. The Admiral says Butler started the expedition before the naval fleet was ready to co-operate and thus by exposing his transports to the view of the enemy, warned them of danger. He also charges that the army portion of the enterprise was got up in a very unmilitary manner.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The ship Gen. Peabody sailed from New York on the 13th for San Francisco. Sailed from Boston, brig Commodore, for San Francisco.

Brig.-General Willams has been appointed Inspector General of the armies operating against Richmond.

An expedition sent from Cape Girardeau to Cherokee Bayou, a few days since, killed 19 guerrillas and captured a number of prisoners and fifty horses.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The World's Washington special says it is probable the President will issue a supplementary proclamation, after the fall of Charleston, increasing the number and grade of officers excluded from the amnesty act, after a certain date, informing Jeff Davis and his supporters that if they hold out long enough to compel the raising of another army, no amnesty whatever will be given, but if they lay down their arms they will be magnanimously treated.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—The Herald's Cumberland dispatch says a cavalry expedition left Winchester on the 10th and proceeded as far as Berryville, twelve miles southward, without meeting any enemy, except a few guerrillas. The command then proceeded to Millwood and found that no rebels had been there for several weeks. They learned that Rosser's cavalry had gone into winter quarters at Staunton.

The Morning Star of New Orleans of the 5th says: A number of expeditions have been sent out from Baton Rouge and other places to chastise the guerrillas along the Mississippi.

The United States sloop of war San Jacinto was wrecked on the [illegible] off the Bahama Banks. No lives lost. Most of the stores of the vessel were saved.

From Mexico.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The World has information from Mexico confirming previous reports of the successes of the Republicans over the Imperialists.

In several battles there was an uprising of the people and a fresh insurrection was increasing. It is said that the papal nuncio and Archbishops are about to leave the country on account of Maximilian's manifesto concerning the church property.

They got into a [illegible] in regard to some money matters, when a scuffle ensued during which the gun was discharged, the load entering the breast of Morah, killing him instantly. The coroner's jury brought in a verdict of accidental killing. The matter will be investigated further.

THE M[illegible] — The new flouring mill [illegible] present season by Mr [illegible] W [illegible] commenced and [illegible] to communicate [illegible] detail [illegible] The building [illegible] made [illegible] with stone [illegible] best site [illegible] front [illegible] to lay [illegible] vessels [illegible] contract [illegible] The machinery which [illegible] order [illegible] by Mr M [illegible] Mills near the city [illegible] works [illegible] New York [illegible] the 7th day of September last, and [illegible] on the [illegible] New York city [illegible] A house has been [illegible] which to store the machinery [illegible] and on the completion of the mill will [illegible] as it [illegible] The basement [illegible] contain the steam engine and all the heavy machinery, including [illegible] of stone [illegible] grinding [illegible] stock hopper, smut machine [illegible] on the north side [illegible] steam boiler and furnace. The first floor [illegible] the basement will be occupied [illegible] of stone, [illegible] hopper scale for receiving wheat from the wharf, [illegible] and the machinery for discharging [illegible] materials and products of the mill. The second story will be occupied by the merchant [illegible] chest the grain separator [illegible]. The third story will contain the coolers, conveyors, heads of flour elevators, and bran duster. The Attic will contain the heads of the wheat elevators, the wheat conveyor, and lines of shafting to drive the [illegible] of which there are two [illegible] for sacks. The machinery is of the highest order and got up with all the late style improvements adopted by first class mills in the East. We hope to be present at the dedication of this mill before the close of September.

OUR CITY FRONT.—It is a matter of regret to very many of our most public spirited citizens, that the committee on landings and wharves reported adverse to the project of improving the foot of Oak street for the purposes of making a suitable landing for the boats that are to bring us much material, such as sand and cobble stone for the most important branch of our improvement likely to progress the present season—street work. We hold that inasmuch as private citizens petition to do this work, and expect to pay the expenses attending it, the duty of the city Council must be when opportunity is offered to assist them in their enterprise. Oak street is convenient to all parts of the city likely to be so improved, and if fitted for the purposes designated, would save nearly one half the cost of such material, over the expense of hauling from one to two miles, as in the case recommended by the committee. Oak street is all that is left to the city of the waterfront within a reasonable distance of business, and we desire to see it improved, as does nine tenths of the people, for the benefit of the city. The strip of levee between Jefferson and Market streets we should also gladly see improved in time; but just now we consider it too isolated, and unfit for the purposes or wants of our community, and we hope to see the action of the Board at its last meeting revoked, at least so far as it relates to the ill advised consideration of the petition.

THE DEDICATION BALL LAST EVENING.—Columbian Engine Company No [illegible] last evening celebrated the opening of their handsome new house by a social re-union at Turn Verein Hall on First street. The hall was handsomely decorated with paintings, engravings, and the usual paraphernalia of a large and prosperous Fire Engine Company, intertwined with flags and appropriate mottoes. Notwithstanding the Company made no effort to dispose of tickets of admission, the hall was almost inconveniently crowded—certainly so for comfortable dancing. However, everybody appeared to enjoy themselves right merrily, and the music and enlivening dance was relished with a gusto. We regretted that the Company could not have obtained a larger room wherein to celebrate this memorable epoch in their annals, but we hope when next we have the pleasure of "footing it" to their music, we shall greet them in a hall more worthy of their popularity.

SWISS BELL RINGERS.—The largest audience we have ever seen at the Theatre to attend any exhibition, filled it last evening, to witness the performance of the Bell Ringers. Their entertainment consisted of the performance on the bells by five persons, songs by Mr Hayward and Miss Clara, and pieces on the cornet and clarionet by Mr Hall. There was an agreeable variety of excellent music offered, and the audience seemed to consider themselves well paid for their coming. Those who love music were certainly gratified, and families can in no better way pleasure their children than by treating them to a visit to the Bell Ringers. Mr Hall's playing on the cornet was exquisite to any musical ear, while Miss Clara, young as she is, seemed the greatest favorite with the audience generally.

ICE.—During the past year Mr Kall[illegible] of this city built a large house on Taylor street, for the purpose of storing ice the present winter for use by our citizens during the hot, summer months. Notwithstanding the cold temperature of the weather in December Mr [illegible] has so far failed to procure what was desired, and it was thought for a time that if we had any ice it would necessarily come from Sitka or east of the Cascades. But the cold snap of Sunday night fixes the question, and men have been sent up the Columbia to "prospect" for the article, with every chance of success, and soon we shall notice parties putting it into the house. We hope a sufficient quantity may be procured to equal the demand.

NAVIGATION CLOSED AGAIN.—The cold snap of Sunday, sensibly felt in this vicinity, extended to the Cascades and beyond, and so much ice was found floating in the Columbia river yesterday that it was deemed unsafe for the steamer to proceed on her usual round to the Cascades, and she returned to this city with the freight, passengers and Express intended for the Dalles. The steamer Vancouver made the trip to Vancouver in place of the [illegible], starting from this city in the forenoon, and returning in the evening.

A PARTY OF OVERLANDERS.—Yesterday after the return of the steamer from her fruitless effort to reach the Cascades, a party of gentlemen from the Dalles, including C I Logan, Mr Buchanan, Agent of Wells, Fargo & Co's Express, and others, fitted themselves out and started overland for home on horses.

EXCITEMENT ON FIRST STREET.—Considerable excitement prevailed on First street, at the crossing of Main, last evening, and upon inquiry we learned that it was occasioned by the attempt of a "head strong" team to run away. We found the vehicle, an empty Express wagon, stuck in the mud, the horses taken off and placed into the livery stable [illegible] Mr. Sherry [illegible].

CITY LICENSES.—We are now publishing the new ordinance of the Council regulating the collection of city licenses. It will be seen that the manner of [illegible] licenses has been changed under the [illegible] of the new charter, and due notice is accordingly given by Marshal [illegible].

THE FESTIVAL.—The festival which is to take place on Wednesday evening at Turn Verein Hall—and which we [illegible] since as long in rehearsal—is calculated to be [illegible] entertainment ever given in the State, and will no doubt be received with great [illegible].

JUSTICE.—We would gladly insert your letter but [illegible] so much in the object of that event [illegible] With all regard for you [illegible] we respectfully decline having any further controversy about the matter.

SETTING BOILERS.—Workmen were employed at the saw mill of [illegible] & Stimson yesterday in placing the new boilers lately purchased of the O S N Company, for that mill.

[illegible]—M[illegible] later left for Victoria [illegible] W Walker who [illegible] the Hall and [illegible]

RETURN [illegible] SHERIFF [illegible] in Idaho [illegible] a young lady who had just arrived [illegible] plains [illegible] has been the first [illegible] was married the same evening, and started off on a bridal tour soon after. All the [illegible] is the fact that during [illegible] absence on the honeymoon trip their [illegible] lady who had come [illegible] distance to make the best [illegible] but who had the good sense to consider herself well rid of such a man, but who certainly deserves a much better husband than she has lost.

Letter from La Grande.

LA GRANDE, Union Co., Dec. 26, 1864.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

As there is a wrong impression abroad in relation to crossing the Blue mountains from Umatilla Landing to La Grande, Eagle Creek, Owyhee, Boise and this upper county during the winter months, permit me through the columns of your wide-spread, popular and much appreciated journal (I hardly know what we would do if it was not for the DAILY OREGONIAN, which is the only source from which we get news) to correct that mistake. Many persons in the Willamette valley, as well as in California, are interested in the placer and quartz mines of Eagle creek, Koesta, Auburn, Owyhee, Boise, &c., &c., and are desirous of knowing the best route to those places; and in all candor and truthfulness I make this statement for the benefit of those who wish to visit this upper country this winter and next spring.

The enterprising Stage Company under the supervision of John Hailey & Co., have been and are making regular trips from Umatilla Landing to this place, and until have never missed a single trip, and make the trip in one day and a half from the Landing to La Grande every time, and everybody who travel the route are loud in their praise of every one connected with the Stage line, who are ever obliging and know no efforts too great to accommodate their patrons. And there will also be a line of stages from this place to Eagle creek and vicinity to accommodate those who may wish to visit that section of country.

Messrs. Meacham Brothers have expended a large amount to improve the road, and have most gloriously succeeded in making the Meacham road the only road that can be traveled over the Blue mountains in the winter and spring with any certainty. Our mails are detained over the Walla Walla road on account of its being impassible, and I learn two men who recently started from Walla Walla to come to this valley (they started in the Walla Walla stage in company with three others) were frozen to death in attempting to cross the mountains, while the other three barely escaped the same melancholy fate; and from Mr. C. Jacobs, a merchant in Walla Walla, I learn, the last trip he made over the Walla Walla road, which was about two weeks ago, they were twenty-four hours in going one hundred yards, and when he returned from Idaho City he came through this place and traveled the Meacham road in preference to the Walla Walla road; these are facts; and I make the statement in truth and not from any personal interests, but for the benefit of those who are desirous of visiting this upper country. At Eagle creek and Koesta, which are 60 miles from this place, we have very rich placer and quartz mines, which I predict will equal in richness any mines that have yet been discovered. At Eagle Creek and Koesta they have been having some shooting, in which a man named George Reeves was shot through the back, but not dangerously; trouble, a Cayuse horse. At Koesta a Mr. Seth Green shot Charles McCarty dead. McCarty had taken money from Green's drawer, (Green is a merchant at Koesta,) and some words passed, McCarty swearing he would shoot Green, and drawing his pistol he put his threat into execution, when Green grappled with McCarty, got the pistol from him and shot him. The people at Koesta gave Green a trial and honorably acquitted him, as he was acting entirely in self-defence. While writing the above the sad intelligence of the death of Mr. John Baker, of the firm of S. M. Black & Co., has reached me. He goes from among us, cut down in his youth and strength, sincerely mourned by our entire community.

Why don't some of your capitalists come up here and establish saw mills and grist mills? Such things are very much needed here, and in my opinion would pay well. Our valley produces equally as well as any portion of the Willamette valley, and the demand for flour, corn meal, lumber, etc., etc., is good.

Very Respectfully, DAVID C. KELLEY.

TROUBLE IN RICHMOND—GLOOM AND DIVISION OF SENTIMENT.—The Norfolk (Va.) Old Dominion of Friday publishes the following letter, dated at Fortress Monroe, November 10:

You will always have observed that when the enemy shows signs of weakness manifested through the treachery of their deserters, it is a sure precursor of something being in the wind. The news of Lincoln's re-election was received by the rebels yesterday, and it caused a great depression of feeling. I was told this morning that over eight hundred deserters came over in a body. This hegira took place on the extreme right of the rebel position. They were marched up to the office of the Provost Marshal General, and related the same tale of sadness and woe that hangs over the doomed city of Richmond. It seems that a number of these deserters were fresh from Richmond, not having been absent from there over twenty-four hours. Despite all the predictions of the Northern press, the assertions of which had been canvassed most thoroughly, the rebel authorities believed the triumph of McClellan a sure thing. The Houses of Congress so believed, and now they find their fallacy. Added to the hopelessness of their cause, which is now rendered doubly sure, the Houses of Congress are divided on the question of the negro soldiers in the army. Many quarrels have already privately arisen, and many more are likely to arise. The Spottswood House was the scene of a fight on Sunday last between a member from Georgia and one from Virginia, the latter maintaining that negroes should be armed, the former that they should not. The Georgian threatened a division of the Confederacy, and said he would be upheld by its constituents. Davis' opinion on the subject is not known; he vacillates between consent and dissent. The Richmond papers advise it by all means, and are using such pungent language as to see no hope for success unless it is immediately done.

Dr. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs, with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATTENDED this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the Procreative Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once relieved, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSITS AND MUCUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will be eager to give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies), or affect the head, as it contains no opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
